

SCHEDULE

DAY 1: WEDNESDAY 1 FEBRUARY
9:00am	Registrations and tea/coffee
9:30am	CONFERENCE Welcome to Country & Opening Remarks
10:00am	PLENARY 1: KEYNOTE Xin Dai: Locating and Localizing ADM Failures in China Chair: Rogier Creemers Respondents: Haemin Jee; Jack Qiu; Min Jiang; Rachel Douglas-Jones
11:30am	Morning tea
12:00pm	PANEL 1: LEGALITY AND DISCOURSE ON AI Chair: Adam Knight
	Debating the Legality of “Credit-based Regulation” in China – A Review of Chinese Legal Scholarship Marianne von Blomberg and Björn Ahl	Strengthening Efficiency, Consistency and Supervision: Provincial Pilots of Judicial AI and Big Data in China Fan Yang	Making governance agile: exploring the role of artificial intelligence in China’s local governance Yiran Li
1:00pm	Catered Lunch
2:00pm	PANEL 2: DATA AND GOVERNANCE Chair: Sheng Zou
	Credit for Compliance: How Institutional Layering Ensures Compliance in China Haemin Jee	Making it a Habit: Instituting Social Credit Systems in Rural China Cheris Shun-ching Chan	Automating moral governance: a case study of data scoring system in rural China Yu Sun, Wilfred Wang, and Linlin Li
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	PANEL 3: DISCREPANCY AND DIVISION Chair: Nicholas Loubere
	The Making of City Brain: How Traditional Media Become the Sociotechnical Gateway for Technopolitical Disagreement Yu Hong and Yiran Wei	In Credit Data We Trust? Banks, ‘Packaging Agencies’ and the Promise of Digital Lending to Micro and Small Businesses Han Tao	Grey digital divide and digital inclusion in China Li Haili and Genia Kostka
4:30pm	PANEL 4: INTERDISCIPLINARY DIALOGUES Jesper Zeuthen
	Mobilizing Social Anomie to Strengthen the State: Justification Strategies for ‘Social Credit’ on Sina Weibo H C Steinhardt and Christian Göbel	Scientific Fairness: Experimentation and Critique of Points Systems in Shenzhen Anne-Christine Trémon	My credit score ought to surpass 90% of people’: A Qualitative Analysis of Citizen Interpretations and Engagements with State, Commercial and Peer-to- Peer Forms of Surveillance in China Alexander Trauth-Goik & Philipp Immel
	The impact of the SCS on foreign companies using the case of German firms Lena Wassermann and Theresa Krause
6:00pm	CONFERENCE RECEPTION Canapes and refreshments		